

THE GREATER KANSAS CITY

LABOR BEACON

PUT YOUR HARD WORKING ADVERTISING DOLLARS TO WORK WITH THE LABOR BEACON

The Labor Beacon is the second largest (paid) subscription newspaper in the metropolitan area.

The Labor Beacon is recognized as the second largest Labor newspaper in the USA.

Our subscribers are consistent salary and wage earners, with a broad range of needs and have the consistent buying power needed to support a full range of goods and services.

Labor Union members who consistently read our publication support our advertisers

The Labor Beacon enables your advertising dollars to reach a diverse range of loyal readers.

Our publication influences Labor leaders, union executives, financial planners, pension and insurance benefit managers as well as teachers, nurses, construction workers, government employees, union retirees as well as many other occupations.

HIGH WAGES, GOOD JOBS, GREAT BENEFITS

We mail out the newspaper to over 40,000 men, women and their families. In addition, we drop the newspaper at the Local Halls of almost every union in the metropolitan area. This allows the advertisers access to a large percentage of union members who do not subscribe, but pick the paper up at their respective halls.

Below is a listing of several unions and the hourly wage a member makes. Obviously apprentices do not make what Journeymen do. The rates below are based on journeyman wages.
